BURNED ALIVE IN RAILWAY CARS. A PASSENGER TRAIN CATCHES FIRE FROM MILION

THE TRACK BRADFORD, Penn., Jan. 15,-A stream of waste oil flowing from a tank across the Bradford, Bordell and Kinzua Railway, two miles east of this town, caught fire this morning as the passenger train from Wellsville for Bradford, due at 9:45, ran into it, and the train was immediately enveloped in flames. The track for fully a distance of 100 yards was covered with oil. It is believed that the gas, coming in contact with the fire-box of the engine, exploded, setting fire to the oil; and the flames, spreading with the speed of a hurricane enveloped the documed train in an instant. The engineer, while rounding a curve, discovered the oil on the tracks. He reversed his engine, but was too late. The brakes could not hold the train, and it presented a combination of life and color and general dashed into the oil. The flames instantaneously enveloped the train, which dashed down a steep grade, 100 feet to the mile, a the rate of forty-five miles an hour.

So intense was the heat that the windows of the ears cracked and fell in, in less time than it takes to write it; and the passenger coach and baggage car were converted into a seething, hissing caldron of fire. The sight of this blazing train, moving with terrible rapidity, excited profound wonder along the route.

The train had proceeded scarcely more than half a mile, however, before it was thrown from the track. The engine turned a complete somersault and lay on its back, and the baggage car and passenger coach were soon a mass of smoking runns. THREE PERSONS DEAD-FIFTEEN MORE INJURED.

The instant the oil ignited and flashed up, the panic stricken passengers, forty in number, jumped to their feet, and sought to escape. A few got out of the windows and jumped into three feet of snow. Others througed to the doorway, but the flames drove them back, and the passageway became blockaded. As a result three persons were burned to death, and fifteen others more or less severely hart. Three or four of the latter will probably

The engineer, "Patsy" Sexton, proved a hero. The engineer, Paisy Sevied, proved a factor of the express messenger and baggage master jumped from the train and were practically unburt; but Sexton stood by his engine in the face of almost certain death.

THE BALL OF PALESTINE COMMANDERY. ENIGHTS TEMPLARS MARCHING AND DANCING IN THE OPERA HOUSE.

In the Metropolitan Opera House, last evenenloyment. The tickets were tastefully engraved, show-ing two gauntleted hands holding swords crossed over a cross and crown, over which was the motto "In noe signo vinces." To the left was a Templar playing sad havoc with a Saracen, while in the lower right hand corner was a belimeted head with the visor down. The orders of dancing were likewise decorated with knightly emblems Lander's Band furnished the music. The dancing floor was an attractive picture throughout the evening, but the greatest interest was caused by the drill of the Knights, who were disclosed upon the stage as the curtain went up, and who then sailled forth. Captain Eunson was in command. After marching, countermarching and wheeling in various columns, they formed into a cross and wheeling in various columns, they formed luto a cross and marched across the floor. They made a fine appearance in their black uniforms, sashes, hats with long white planess, and swords, and they were loudly applicated.

After this exhibition they became carpet-kinghts for the rest of the evening, and danced or promismated with the ladies present. Engene S. Eunson was chalrman of the Reception Committee. The Floor Committee was the charge of H. H Brockway and J. M. Layman. It was divided into three squads, which served respectively from 10 p. m. to 12, 12 to 2 a. m., and 2 a. m. to 4 a. m. Charles F. the northeast? This argument in favor of the British Government against Cherif Pacha, who was trying his best to maintain a remnant of Ery, then nationality against the greed of Enraland, is very much like the argument of the wolf agains the lamb at the brook.

If your correspondent thinks it was very wicked in Cherif to risk the lives of two small garrisons near the Red Sea and only a short distance from Bager Pasha's army and English war-ships, what must we think of Lord Granville, who by his recommendation would cause to be abandoned to their fate the brave Governor-Genera of Darfour and the Governor-General of the Equator, with the many garrisons under their command?

of the Equator, which can be any garrieds direct their columnant?

Those large garrisons in the far interior of the Soudan will be without hope of cutting their way out through hundreds of miles of hostile territory should knarroum be evacuated. In a military point or view, the abandonment of Knarroum will be as great a blunder as can be committed for the defence of Lower Egypt against the Mandt. Very respectfully, your most obscient servant, F. M. P. STONE, Lieutenant-General.

Senator Corgeshall introduced one of the most important bills of the session; one to abolish the State Paper. Every three years one of the Albany newspapers is designated as the State Paper; and by a State law legal notices must be published in it. A yearly income of $30,000 net is said to be the reward of the newspaper securing the designation of State Paper. Senator Coggeshall's bill abolishes the State Paper. It declares further that "any and all notices and advertisements in any and all suits, actions and special proceedings in any court now required to be published in the State Paper, shall hereafter be published in such newspaper published in the county wherein the place of trial is designated. All other legal notices are to be printed in a newspaper designated by the various county officers.

Senator Murphy introduced a bill providing for stays of proceedings in sentences for death or imprisonment for life until the cases have been reviewed by the General term or Court of Appeais.

Senator Lansing introduced a bill providing, that snicide shall not be interposed as a defence in suits to recover amounts of an insurance policy, providing the act causing death shall have been committed more than two years after such policy shall have been issued.

THE WORK ON THE CAPITOL. COMMISSIONER PERRY'S METHODS TO BE INVESTI-

GATED BY THE SENATE. [FROM THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.]
ALBANY, Jan. 15.—The Republican Senators held a secret caucus this afternoon to decide upon their policy in regard to the appropriation for the new Capitol. Governor Cleveland in his message favors a large appropriation; arguing that the building ought to be pushed to land in his message rayors a mixe appropriate arguing that the building ought to be pushed to completion. Commissioner Perry urges that $1,400,000 be appropriated.

The Republican Senators decided that they could not grant so large an appropriation, and will strive to limit the appropriations to work in the interior of the new Capitol. There was much indignation over the removal of Republican workmen on the Capitol. The reply of Commissioner Perry was examined and it was discovered that contracts for $270,000, being a debt on the State, had been executed in advance of appropriations. It was then determined to order an investigation into the construction of the edifice before voting it any more money. A resolution will be introduced in the Senate to-morrow directing the Finance Committee to make the investigation.

THE ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ON CITIES.

NOW TO COOK FISH BALLS AND MUFFINS.

cinss were: meat hash, fish hash, fish balls, pop-overs, buckwheat cakes and muffins. Fish balls was the first subject taken up. One pint of raw, shredded codfish was measured out, and two heaped bowls of raw potatoe were carefully pared. The potatoes, with the codfish on top of them, were placed in a saucepan, and enough boll lecturer stated that the codfish and potatoes should boil half an hour.

. While they were boiling the subject of muffins was taken up. Raised muffins were exhibited, which were made with a pint of warm milk, half a cake of compressed yeast, one tablespoonful of butter, and two well beaten eggs. Miss Parioa explained that the eggs, salt, butter and yeast should be alled to the milk, and the whole stirred gradually into the floor. These muffins, she said, should be baked in deep tins, which should be filled, when the batter is light, two-thirds full and left to stand covered in a warm piace till they rise to the top of the tin, when they are placed in a quick oven the top of the tin, when they are placed in a quick oven to bake half an hour. The lecturer referred in praise to the excellent flour now made of the whole grain of wheat, ground line. A recipe was given in which whole-wheat flour, or granulated wheat, could be used: To one and a half cups of granulated meal, or whole wheat flour, add two tenapoonfuls of suzur, one tenapoonful of cream-of-tariar and milf a tenapoonful of soit. Mix these loggedients together, with half a tenapoonful of sait, and, if you wish, leave over night, or any length of time till you are ready to make the mufflus. The lecturer said that she was accusioned to seep boxes filled with Indian, rye and wheat hour prepared ready to add the liquid and eggs at any time. To comblete the maffins an ear was beaten lightly and added to a cupful of milk and a third of a cupful of cold water, and this mixture was turned gradually on the dry incredient. These mufflus were then baked twenty-five minutes and were deficious in flavor. Indian mufflus, pop-over and buckwheat cakes were then baked successively before the class.

The lecturer then took up fish balls. The fish and potatoes having been cooked sufficiently, the sameepan was removed from the stove and any surplus of water was drained off, and the whole vigorously scaten with a potato missier. Miss Parloa added butter of the size of potato missier. the fat were lifted out brown and ready to be served.

ARRESTED FOR THE TOWNSEND ASSAULT.

Coroner Baylis continued the investigation of the Townsend assault case yesterd of at Oyster Bay. Several witnesses were examined but nothing new was clicited. At 4 p. m. John Tappan, a mason, and the owner of the hammer and overalls which were found, was arrested on a warrant issued by Justice Chipp. He is about fifty years old, six feet in height, has worked as a mason in the village for many years, and has borne a mason in the strate of the same of that they have strong evidence against him. He is a brother of Edwin Tappan, who lives at Brookyille, and was a winness at the Maybee inquest. Other arrests are promised to-day, and it is said that the officers expect to prove that the two crime were committed by the same persons.

ATALK WITH EX-GOVERNOR AUSTIN BLAIR.

PROBURCTION, THE TABLEF AND THE PRESIDENCY-GENERAL SHERMAN AS A CANDIDATE.

From an interciew in The Detroit Journal. "How important a part will the temperance party just organized at Union Hall, and the temperance element generally throughout the State, play in the comelement generally throughout the State, play in the coming elections in Michigan P Governor Blair was asked.

"No more than usual, I appreaend. Of course, it must be conceled, to begin with, that a major portion of the temperance element in the State is Republican in politics.
It has always given as more or less trouble, and will continue to do so for some time to come. But I think we can manage it so that it will not do us much damage at the polls. I am not in favor of submitting a constitutional amendment to the people at the next general election. It has been my experience and observation that problems have do not probable."

son I" "Not favorably. I see no reason why, as a son of the late President fancoin, he has any claims on the nomination. He is a very reputable and promising than, no mount, but there is not a sincle reason why he should be do you!"

"No man will refuse a nomination for the Presidency, sir. He will not only take the bomination, but he will be elected. No man donors his ability, parriodsm or honesty. The soldiers almost to a man would yote and work for him, and it would be an entirestante campadan such as the country has not witnessed for a long time."
"Do you think the tariff question will enter largely into the Pressiential canvass!"
"Not so largely as some people suppose. Speaking for myself, I am a liciny Clay protectionist. I believe that our present prosperity and nearly every prosperous period the batton has equoyed has had its source directly or indirectly in our protective tariff laws. We have a full freasury to-day. The tariff did it. The country is more prose prosperior properiors.

the hation has edgoyed has had its source duried of a rectly in our professive tariff laws. We have a roll frea-ury to-day. The tariff did it. The country is more pros-perous taan ever before. The tariff did it. Every hoor-ling man mas more of the necessaries and luxuries of life in this country than in any known section of the globe. I charge the a presty sun price for a suit of clothes. I charge thin a good price for my services as a lawyet, and get it. If the haborer pays a pretty suif price for some of the necessaries and luxuries of life, he can, at the present price of habor, afford to do so. The money for many of the products used, instead of going out of the contary, remains in it. I et some of it, you get some of it, the farmer and grocer and merchant get their share, and one and all are better off and happier. and all are better off and happier.

BENSE, IN CHUNKS.

The first business the Democratic Honse of Representatives should undertake should be the exposure of the rottenness and dish nestly which underful our whole system of Government under Republican rule. As true as you live. And if they don't expose it, their ext business is to stop lying about it. Let the exposure next business is to stop lying about it.
